Must one pay the Rabbi his services?

NO. This service is available to all who request it free of charge and without expectation of payment of any kind.

While it has been traditional over the centuries to provide the “Selling Rabbi” with a donation when authorizing the Rabbi to sell Chometz, and there are even some opinions that such a practice strengthens the Rabbi’s authorization, this can be accomplished with a minimal denomination as well, and thus donations regardless of size will facilitate that custom.

Rabbi’s Charitable Discretionary Fund. For anyone wishing to “pay” for the service, and participate in such centuries-old custom, I offer the opportunity to contribute to the Rabbi's Charitable Discretionary Fund. If you’d like any donation to go towards such fund, please make sure to specify that you’d like your donation to be directed to the Rabbi’s Discretionary Fund. Payments can be submitted in person or made out to Rabbi Shalom Rubanowitz, and sent to Rabbi’s Study-124 North LA Brea Avenue, LA, CA 90036. Rabbi: 323-877-2320
